

Terms and Conditions

These Terms and Conditions govern your participation in any travel program or service provided by In Situ Art Club ("we", "us", "our"). By booking a trip or using our services, you ("you", "your", "traveler") agree to these Terms.

Membership

This trip is available to both members and non-members of In Situ Art Club. When you book, you'll automatically receive a one-year membership, granting you exclusive and free access to all our events in Houston.

Travel Documentation

Passports and Visas: You must have a valid passport to travel internationally. For many countries, your passport must be valid for at least six months beyond your planned return date. Some countries may require additional documents, such as visas, which are your responsibility to obtain prior to departure.

Non-US Citizens: If you are not a US citizen, different immigration and entry requirements may apply. It is your responsibility to check the visa and entry requirements for your destination.

Health and Safety Requirements: You are also responsible for ensuring you meet any health requirements for your destination, including vaccinations or COVID-19 testing as applicable.

Travel Insurance

We strongly recommend that you purchase comprehensive travel insurance to cover unforeseen events such as trip cancellations, delays, medical emergencies, and lost luggage. Insurance may also cover financial losses due to pandemics, pre-existing medical conditions, or other policy exclusions. In Situ Art Club is not liable for any denial of claims by your insurer. You agree to hold us harmless for any claims or losses related to travel insurance or lack of coverage. For recommendations on insurance providers, please email us at hello@insituartclub.com.

Late Arrivals

Please be advised that our activities proceed as scheduled, and any late arrivals may miss part of the planned experience. If you anticipate any delays, please inform us as soon as possible. We cannot guarantee rescheduling of missed activities due to late arrivals.

Liability

In Situ Art Club strives to provide a safe and enjoyable experience for all participants. However, we are not liable for any personal injury, loss, damage, theft, or delays arising from third-party services, including airlines, hotels, or other travel providers. We are not responsible for any delays, cancellations, or other disruptions caused by events outside our control, including but not limited to natural disasters, political instability, or pandemics.

Force Majeure

Neither In Situ Art Club nor the traveler shall be held responsible for failure to perform their obligations under these Terms if such failure is caused by events beyond their control, such as acts of God, war, government action, or other unforeseen circumstances.

Privacy Policy

We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting your personal information. All personal data provided will be used solely for fulfilling our services and in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of England and Wales. Any disputes arising from these Terms will be resolved through arbitration under the rules of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), with the seat of arbitration in Paris.

Amendments to the Terms

We reserve the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Any updates will be communicated to you and apply to future bookings. Please review the Terms regularly. By booking a trip with In Situ Art Club, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to these Terms and Conditions.

I, the undersigned, acting both on my own behalf and on behalf of the other persons registered for this trip, acknowledge having received all the necessary information to make an informed decision regarding the choice of destination and acknowledge having read:

- The Terms and Conditions of Sale, including the provisions related to administrative and health formalities, security information regarding the country, and the cancellation fee conditions.
I accept these conditions unreservedly and in their entirety.
- I acknowledge that I will subscribe to my own travel insurance. I understand that In Situ Art Club cannot be held responsible for covering unforeseen events such as trip cancellations, delays, medical emergencies, and lost luggage. Insurance may also cover financial losses due to pandemics, pre-existing medical conditions, or other policy exclusions. In Situ Art Club is not liable for any denial of claims by my insurer. I agree to hold In Situ Art Club harmless for any claims or losses related to travel insurance or lack of coverage.
